A Missive on our Israeli Identity

From Rabbi Edward S. Boraz

The struggle of the Jewish people, from the time of the Second Exile in 70 CE to today, has been a struggle to live a life devoted to Torah as an ideal both in its particularity to our people, and in its universal application. Our history is replete with lives lived uniquely within Judaism. Such particular practices as keeping Kosher, observing Shabbat on Saturday, marking Jewish holidays and so on, are unique, particular only to Jews.

There are also universal ideals that we practice in the broader society: principles of justice, charity for the poor, and acts of loving kindness (to name only a few), allow us to improve the world around us, and cause us to live a life connected with others. In differing permutations depending on local circumstances, we lived this way for the 1,878 years following the Second Exile.

A game changer for Jewish life arrived in 1894: publication of Theodore Herzl's Der Judenstaat ("The Jewish State") and the founding of the World Zionist Organization, the movement to create a Jewish homeland. In 1948, fifty-four years after Herzl's book appeared, and after 1,878 years of exile, the Jewish State of Israel was established. In a good way, the new state upset the existing paradigm of Jewish life around the world.

I was only 4 years old when the State of Israel was declared. Like many Jews living in the United States after the establishment of Israel, I continued for many years to live in the old paradigm for all practical purposes. Sixty-eight years later, in 2016, Israel has become a great source of the Jewish collective will and identity from which we no longer can separate by saying, "Israel does not matter," as some might have early in the state's existence.

Israel does matter and will matter so long as there is a Jewish People. Consider that today, there are 14.5 million Jews world-wide; this is 4.5 million fewer Jews than were alive in 1939. More than 41% (6 million) of all Jews living today live in Israel.

If we were to lose Israel, we would experience a 10% greater loss to our population than we did during the Shoah when we lost 33% of the world's Jews! If such a catastrophe occurred, the resulting world population of Jews would number fewer than 10 million. A threat to the existence of Israel is therefore a threat to the entire Jewish people. This is why any move in the Mideast is fraught with terrible risk, whether it maintains or changes the status quo. The stakes are incredibly high for any course of action or any change in policy Israel pursues.

Regardless, one thing is clear. The paradigm of Jewish life has clearly changed in fewer than three generations. We are no longer a people who live only in diaspora with our Jewish identity solely based on Torah, or a culture that derives its ethics and way of life from our sacred texts.

As part of this new Jewish identity, we must embrace the impact of the Jewish State of Israel on both our individual and collective identities.

Israel as a Jewish homeland, with all the wonders, accomplishments and challenges it presents, is a significant part of our world Jewish identity, encompassing our religion, culture, literature, and most of all, our Peoplehood.

President's Message

by Deborah Kaplan

As we approach June and the start of summer in the Upper Valley, we welcome the school year's winding down following spring's Jewish holidays; we all are ready for life to slow down just a bit. But before the Board of Trustees can get into summer mode, we must prepare for the UVJC Annual Meeting on Sunday, June 5 at 5:00 PM.

The Annual Meeting is an important event during which we elect a new slate of officers and new board members. We also present an operating budget to the community. As I mined through former presidents' messages written at this time of the year, a consistent theme emerged: the stress of planning and presenting a budget that will break even in the face of stagnant membership, flat or decreasing revenues, and increased costs related to rent and services we are obligated (contractually) to obtain from Dartmouth.

While our deal with Dartmouth is broadly beneficial, costs still increase each year. As a member of our community, you have an obligation to be aware of and understand our financial situation. Please be sure to review the budget summary and slate of Board members and officers that you will have received via email by the time you read this.

I am very excited about the strong slate of officers and new board members. There is considerable turnover among officers this year, as the majority have served their 3-year term limit. I believe consistency has served us well and feel very confident about the leadership going forward.

I hope you will join us for the Annual Meeting on June 5. At the very least, please return your ballots in support of the slate of the Board of Trustees and budget.

I welcome your thoughts and feedback as we plan for the new year of 5777 and wish you all an enjoyable relaxing summer.

Yahrzeit Board

Remembrance

The act of remembrance is a profound experience in Jewish tradition. Remembrance brings to present consciousness the influence, love, and nurturing the departed brought to us, our children, and our children's children.

A yahrzeit board provides a spiritual means of paying respect and offering tribute to the memories of our departed loved ones.

The yahrzeit board in the Alperin Sanctuary at the Roth Center for Jewish Life at Dartmouth College provides each member of our congregational family the opportunity to engage in the profound mitzvah of remembrance by acquiring a yahrzeit plaque.

On the anniversary of the yahrzeit (the date of death), a light is illuminated adjacent to the deceased's name.

If you are interested in acquiring a yahrzeit plaque, please contact Carole Clarke at 603-646-0460 or at uvjc@valley.net.

UVJC History Group

The Upper Valley Jewish Community Oral History Project is starting to take shape!

After reviewing a preliminary draft incorporating a subset of interview transcripts, the committee has settled on a structure for the text and has prioritized the next segments to be completed. While there is still a great deal of work left to do, it is very exciting to see everything begin to come together.

We remain eager to receive any photos you may have that relate to the project, particularly those of key community members, local businesses, school events, and traditional celebrations. We are also looking for help in establishing an accurate timeline for important community events such as when the religious school moved to different locations.

Another item on our "to do" list is to view carefully videos we have of individual interviews to identify segments to be used in a montage.

If you enjoy binge watching Netflix and love listening to Jewish stories, this is the task for you! Please contact Project Coordinator, Liza Draper (ldraper@dartmouth.edu) to get involved. There is always room for another volunteer on this team!

Volunteer to Sponsor a Shabbat Morning Kiddush

Responsibility to prepare our weekly Shabbat kiddush is rotated among UVJC volunteers who attend services. Preparing kiddush for the congregation is a great way to celebrate a birthday, graduation, wedding anniversary, or to commemorate a loved one's yahrzeit. It's also an opportunity to get together with old friends and make new ones.

For those unfamiliar with the tradition of Shabbat morning kiddush, it is the time following the service when we gather over wine, grape juice, challah and other goodies. But most of all, we come together to enjoy Shabbat with good fellowship.

Wine, grape juice, paper goods and cups are supplied by the UVJC. The weekly kiddush volunteer supplies the challah. One may add to the fare if one wishes. For example, herring, gefilte fish, cheese, cookies, coffee cake, sweet rolls, pretzels, or fruit make nice additions to the kiddush table.

If you have questions, or would like to sponsor a kiddush, please contact Yoni Neirman who may be reached evenings at 802-649-3234, or by email at Yoni.Stevens.Neirman@hitchcock.org.

NEW INITIATIVES AND OPPORTUNITIES

LUNCH PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN IN AFFORDABLE HOUSING

The Upper Valley Jewish Community will be providing lunches for about 30 children who live in affordable housing in White River Junction during the week of July 11-15.

During the school year, these children receive federally-funded lunches. For the past several years, area churches have provided lunches throughout the summer, with each participating congregation assuming responsibility for one week.

We are delighted that the UVJC will be participating for the second time this summer. Last year, many of you generously contributed towards the cost, while others volunteered to help prepare the lunches. Those of us who volunteered last year found it to be a fun and moving experience.

We invite your participation this summer in either of the following ways:

1) If you would like to donate towards the cost of the lunches, please send a check made out to the UVJC to the UVJC office with "lunch program" in the memo line.

2) To volunteer to help with the shopping or preparation of the lunches,
please e-mail UVJCSocAction@gmail.com or call Carolyn Gordon at 643-5895.

We anticipate that we will prepare the lunches for the full week on the morning of July 11.

DINNERS AT THE HAVEN'S HIXON HOUSE

The Social Action committee held a "trial run" as a Dinner Team for The Haven's Hixon House, a residence for 20 people, on Monday, 29 February. Lynn Schwartz, Pam Hausler, Sue Berg and Alice Berliner pre-prepared dinner in Lynn's kitchen the day before. Part of the fun was the cooking together! The model for The Haven's Dinner Teams was very appealing: preparing the meal, setting it out buffet-style and then joining the residents to share the dinner meal together. The other attractive aspect is no clean-up! The Haven residents manage this themselves.

The Social Action committee decided to commit to 5 dinners for 2016, on alternate months on a Monday at starting at 4:45 PM, with dinner being served at 5:30. Remaining dinners for 2016 are scheduled for 18 July, 19 September and 21 November. Each dinner requires a maximum of 4 persons. If there's enough interest for 2017, we could consider a monthly commitment.

For now, we welcome anyone wanting to join us for this year to contact Alice Berliner at alb172cs@gmail.com, cell 802-380-9606, home 802-649-7286.

Please consider joining us for one or more of the dinners. Try it once, and then see what you think. It is both a fun and rewarding way to contribute to the Upper Valley community!

(Note: This program is separate from and in addition to the monthly dinners organized by Susan Cohen and Judy Oxman at the Listen Center.)

There are many opportunities for donors to designate a gift to the Upper Valley Jewish Community.

*Please give generously throughout the year.
Please make your check payable to either "UVJC" or "Upper Valley Jewish Community," noting the name of the fund on the memo line.
Donations may be directed to the UVJC General Fund or specifically to one of the following funds:*

Adult Education Fund:

To support guest speakers and other special adult programs

Beautification Fund:

To be used toward furnishings, decorations, and ornamentation to enhance the Roth Center for Jewish Life.

Cemetery Fund:

To help with landscaping and maintenance of the UVJC cemetery.

Library Fund:

For purchase of books and/o other library materials.

Endowment:

Contributions of cash or securities, payable to the UVJC Endowment Fund. Interest will be used to support the activities of the community.

Rabbi's Discretionary Fund:

For charitable purposes as determined by the Rabbi.

School Programming Fund:

To support special programs over and above the curriculum.

Teen Programming:

To provide support for young adults in our community to participate in Jewish programs.

HOW JUDAISM BECAME A RELIGION

An Introduction to Modern Jewish Thought

BY LEORA BATNITZKY

The book tells the history of the central issue of Jewish thought for the past three centuries: Must we, as Jews, choose whether we are members of a religion or a nation, a culture or a civilization? Batnitzky's view of the issue is followed by chapters explaining the position of major Jewish thinkers from Moses Mendelssohn to Mordecai Kaplan. The book may help us understand the history and meaning of our own connection to Judaism.

We are an enthusiastic reading group who love to discuss books proposed by group members. We welcome new participants. Literature Lovers usually meets at 7:00 PM the last Sunday of the month, unless otherwise noted.
